Robert Currys Return From Hawaii Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. G. Robert Curry returned Saturday from a honeymoon in Hawaii. They were married on May 3 at the Congregational Church in Fullerton. Mrs. Curry is the former Doris Germann, daughter of Mrs. Oliver Green of Fullerton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curry, 2031 Reynosa Dr., Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride was gowned in yellow organza and lace. She carried a cascade of white carnations encircling yellow cymbidiums. Mr. Arthur Copeland escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Arthur Copeland served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore blue voile and lace and carried blue cymbidiums. Miss Anne Giovannone was the bridesmaid dressed in pink voile. Her bouquet was of pink cymbidiums.

Phillip Lisman stood as best man and ushers were David Samson and Bernard Taylor. Rev. C. Bryant, pastor, officiated at the marriage. The 125 guests were entertained at a reception at the Assistance League in Fullerton. Miss Monica Copeland was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds sailed immediately on the Lurline for Hawaii. Their new address is 1418 S. Orange, Apt. 9, Fullerton.

The bride received her education in North Dakota and is employed as a bookkeeper for a drug concern.

Her husband, a 1945 graduate of Torrance High school, attended USC. He is employed by Autometrics in Anaheim.

Mrs. Peverley Hostess To Arts-Crafts

Mrs. A. J. Peverley, long-time member of the Torrance Arts and Crafts Club who with her family is moving to Carmichael, near Sacramento, entertained the club at a dinner meeting at her Los Angeles home Wednesday evening.

After dinner, Mrs. Leila Everley, president, conducted a business meeting at which Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass was elected secretary of the club. Mrs. Charlotte Outcalt was named vice president to fill the office vacated by Miss Frances Peverley.

The Peverleys also presented the club with copies of old minutes and a member was named to make a history of the club from these minutes.

During the evening, Mrs. Peverley and her daughters were presented with a farewell gift, a cut glass vase. The door prize was won by Mrs. Cora Bohrer.

Attending the dinner meeting with the hostess and her two daughters, Frances and Phyllis were Mmes. Leah Arterburn, Maybel Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Rolve Bever, Cora Bohrer, Helen Carpenter, Florence Childs, Vivian Cook, Lela Everley, Vena Hamilton, Ruth Hardin, Fran Snodgrass, Hazel Ward, Eloda Barkdull, Sybil Moffitt, Mae Jones, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Zelma Miller and Charlotte Outcalt.

The June meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Rolve Bever, with Mrs. Vena Hamilton co-hostess.

On Fishing Trip

Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts spent four days last week fishing at Railroad Canyon near Elsinore. They were joined on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seeman.

Winners Are Listed by Sisterhood

Temple Menorah Sisterhood Bowling League has completed its first year with the announcement of trophy winners.

The winning team was composed of Mmes. Mark Bennett, Howard Friedman, both of Torrance, and Michael Wald, of Redondo Beach.

Second place went to the team of Mmes. William Goldsmith, Harry Mandel, and Harold Wolpert, all of Torrance.

Mrs. Howard Friedman, Torrance, received the trophy for high game with handicap for a sparkling 260 score, and Mrs. Lee Solomon, Redondo Beach, won the competition for high series with an impressive 612 with handicap.

Sweepstakes, rolled the last week of competition, were won by Mmes. William Goldsmith, Torrance, high series; Abe Freiberg, Lomita, high game with handicap and Jerome Scharfman, Torrance, high game scratch.

The Temple Menorah women who participate in this Wednesday morning league are combining their fun and exercise with service. A portion of the prize money is set aside as a donation to the temple.

A summer league is just getting under way, and league president, Mrs. Lee Solomon invites any women affiliated with Temple Menorah to join. Mrs. Solomon may be contacted for information.

PARISH CARNIVAL . . . St. James Parish will stage a gala carnival on the school grounds, Pacific Coast Hwy. and Vincent on Saturday and Sunday from 12 noon to 9 p.m. both days. There will be food, games and prizes offered by all parish organizations. Looking at one of the many prizes are, from left, Mmes. Jerome Mulcahy, William H. Bikinis for the feet (at a scant $2.99)

You mean your toes aren't tan? Well, get with our new bikinis and let the sun go to work. Many of our bikinis are styled in the U.S.A. But some, like the second from the left are Italian imports (che bella). Most bikinis cost a lot for such a little. But from Mr. Thom, only $2.99. How do we do it? By being the best-selling shoe in all America. We can cut a lot of costs without cutting corners. We save. You save. And your toes get tan. Nice?
